The film is a remake of the 1996 Kannada film Sringeri Meera. The story of the film is set in the 1920s. The film was earlier titled Nikhla Hero. The title was changed to maintain continuity with the original Kannada film, and was subsequently changed again to Phata Poster Nikhla Hero. The film released on 4 December 2013 to mixed reviews from critics and audiences. Upon release, the film grossed over and was declared a superhit. Plot Bhaijaan (Shahid Kapoor) is the son of Thakur Prithvi Singh (Praful Dave), who is wealthy and likes to perform harmless pranks. Bhaijaan is fond of books and is inspired to read them. Bhaijaan's mother, Rupa (Sushmita Sen) is a housewife and a typical Bengali housewife. Bhaijaan and his two friends, Pappu (Govind Namdeo) and Meera (Heena D'Cruz), are arrested for accidentally killing a dog during a prank. They are acquitted for lack of evidence. Bhaijaan attends a party at his house where he dances and sings with Rupa. Bhaijaan's friends all get married, except for Meera. Bhaijaan decides to marry her. He meets her while she is studying for her exams, and they get married. Bhaijaan sees how his father gives him the freedom to go to college, buy a motorcycle, and act like a rebel. Bhaijaan becomes impatient to be treated like his father and goes on a bike ride. He ends up going too far and is arrested. He is sentenced to serve time in jail for stealing a motorcycle. Meera's older sister Maya (Shriya Sharma) is getting married to a boy she doesn't like. Bhaijaan and his friends come to their wedding and teach Maya how to be a "bad girl". This makes Maya fall in love with Bhaijaan. Thakur Prithvi Singh gets angry with Bhaijaan for being a bad influence on his son. Bhaijaan manages to release himself from jail and returns home. Bhaijaan and Maya get into an argument and she leaves home. Bhaijaan and his friends get a new motorbike and the entire gang goes on a road trip. When they 82157476af
